„Chinese Medicine and Spirituality: Cultivation of the Practitioner, the Healer and the Alchemist“

Klaus-Dieter Platsch, Germany

The work of Dr. med. Klaus-Dieter Platsch, doctor of Internal Medicine, Chinese Medicine and Psychotherapy, points out a vision of a new medicine, which roots in the unity of all Being and in an all embracing love transcending the personal level. He designed a two years course "Heilende Medizin" for the spiritual and healing development of medical doctors and people in other healing professions.

As the essential foundation of his work, deep healing is rooted in a space beyond all methods and medical systems and is based on the principal and the experience of connectedness, openness and love. Healing occurs in a healing field, through which an ill person gets into contact with his original capacity of healing and of being whole. The healing field is a field of unconditional love in a transpersonal space. The ego of the healing person has to learn to step back in order to give way to "something", which is beyond understanding. The message is: It is not me, who heals – IT heals.

Dr. Klaus-Dieter Platsch integrates the newest scientific knowledge into his work. He follows the Path of Love, given by his spiritual teacher, Irina Tweedie, – a path of trans-religious, nondual spirituality.

Dr. Platsch is the director of the Institute of Integral Medicine, teacher of the German Society of Medical Acupuncture and the head of the congresses of "Medicine and Spirituality". He is also author of a number of books in the field of acupuncture and healing.
